

Don't miss your chance to be a part of the 8th annual Montclair Film Festival!

➤ Festival Dates: May 3–12, 2019

With over 26,000 patrons and 150 attending filmmakers and industry guests, this festival has grown to become one of the top regional festivals in the country.

The MFF catalog is a sought-after reference guide which local residents and attendees use to plan their experience at the ten-day festival. Packed with content including movie descriptions and schedules, patrons refer to the guide again and again both before and during the festival. Many also hold onto their guides well after the festival to remember films they might have missed.

"I use the MFF catalogs for reference and to check off the films that I have not seen during the festival. The films are carefully chosen so it is a great list to use, not unlike a recommendation list from a friend who shares the same taste in movies."

— JASON PAULOSKI

"East Side Mags is the most community focused comic book shop in NJ. We love advertising with MFF because it doesn't get anymore "community" than right in your own backyard! MFF does so much to support indie films that it goes great with our support of indie comics like peanut butter and jelly!"

— JEFF BECK, Owner, East Side Mags
