

Campaign for the Mark Urman Award Fund

In order to offer maximum creative support to exceptional emerging filmmakers, Montclair Film is seeking in-kind filmmaking services from industry experts to be awarded to the winner of our annual Mark Urman Award for Feature Filmmaking. This award is given to filmmakers participating in the annual Montclair Film Festival's Future/Now Competition, a juried competition celebrating American, low-budget independent filmmaking by first or second time feature film directors who are creating innovative, challenging films.

Specifically, we seek in-kind donations of the following types of filmmaking services:

- Marketing and Press Kits
- Trailer Development
- Poster Design
- Development and Pre-Production Space
- Camera and Lighting Packages
- Location Services
- Post-Production Facilities and Services for
 - Sound Design
 - Film Editing
 - Scoring
 - SFX

These services will be granted directly to the winning filmmaker in addition to a cash prize that will draw directly from the Mark Urman Award Fund and will be given annually.

The Montclair Film Festival is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization (Tax ID 27-1732322). We will provide tax receipts for all in-kind donations. Your contribution is tax-deductible to the extent allowed by law.

Past winners of the Future/Now Competition, now the Mark Urman Award for Feature Filmmaking, include:

- MICKEY AND THE BEAR by Annabelle Attanasio (2019)
- WE THE ANIMALS by Jeremiah Zagar (2018)
- BEACH RATS by Eliza Hittman (2017)
- THE FITS by Anna Rose Holmer (2016)
- EDEN by Elise DuRant (2015)

For more information, please contact Aran Roche, Director of Development at Aran@MontclairFilm.org

- I'd like to make an in-kind donation of services or equipment to the winner of the Mark Urman Filmmaker Award, given each May as part of the Montclair Film Festival's Future/Now Competition award
