December 29, 2020 - Montclair Film today announces $40,548 of NJ CARES Act funds through the New Jersey State Council on the Arts. As stated by Council Chair Liz Mattson, "Governor Murphy's dedication of $5 million dollars in CARES Act funds is just the kind of leadership we need now and in the coming months. We are grateful for this opportunity to provide some financial relief." This federal funding helps to support Montclair Film's work over this past year to pivot its programs to virtual and Carpool Theater formats during the pandemic, helping to safely educate, inspire, and entertain audiences across the State through the power of film and visual storytelling.

"Government support is a vital source of funding, helping to ensure Montclair Film's stability during this challenging year," Executive Director Tom Hall shares. "We are proud to be a recipient of NJ CARES Act funds and announce additional support including a general operating support grant of $33K from the NJ State Council on the Arts and a cooperative marketing grant of $22.5K from the NJ Division of Travel and Tourism, returning funders whose leadership grants help to leverage support from other private entities."

Montclair Film's marketing efforts focus on attracting a geographically diverse audience of cultural tourists to explore Montclair's parks and gardens, restaurants, museums and galleries, retail establishments, and regional hotels. These efforts help to enhance the organization's reputation as the suburban epicenter for arts and culture in the New York Metro Area.

"Montclair Film is a trailblazer within our state and is helping New Jersey rise as a top destination for visual storytelling," said Jeffrey Vasser, Executive Director of the New Jersey Division of Travel & Tourism. "From hallmark events, like the Montclair Film Festival, to live performances and celebrity speaker series, Montclair Film brings the arts to residents and visitors of the state, and we're proud to have them as a strong partner."

In addition, Montclair Film recently received $10,000 from the NJ Economic Development Authority (NJEDA) Emergency Assistance Phase 3 Grant program.

Montclair Film also celebrates recent foundation gifts and announces a grant in the amount of $26,500 from the New Jersey Arts and Culture Recovery Fund, helping to support the organization during this challenging time. “Funds like these help to keep the arts and culture alive in New Jersey!” according to Aran Roche, Montclair Film’s Director of Development.

Finally, Montclair Film received a two-year grant of $30,000 from Horizon Blue Cross Blue Shield of New Jersey. The donation, made through The Horizon Foundation for New Jersey, will be used to help fund the 10th annual Montclair Film Festival in October 2021, as well as MFF22 in October 2022.

“Horizon is pleased to support the important work being done by Montclair Film to promote a greater understanding, awareness, and appreciation of the art of filmmaking and the role that media arts and storytelling play in the health of our community,” said Jonathan R. Pearson, Executive Director of The Horizon Foundation for New Jersey.

“These donations will enable Montclair Film to continue our important work of connecting artists with audiences and bringing people together through film and storytelling,” said Tom Hall, Executive Director of Montclair Film. “We are grateful to all of our partners, sponsors and donors for their generous support of our mission, and we look forward to bringing another year of inspirational programs to our community.”
