Why we need your support

- + Montclair Film is a non-profit organization that relies on sponsorships, donations, and grants to thrive
- + Approximately one third of our total philanthropic support was from Sponsorships this fiscal year
- + We provide scholarships to all students who cannot afford to attend education classes and we provide supplemental arts education in under-resourced communities
- + We strive to ensure our festival programming includes diverse voices of individuals and reflects the experiences of women, people of differing abilities, immigrants, senior citizens, and other traditionally under-represented groups

Our 14th Annual Film Festival

- + To be held in Montclair, New Jersey — a vibrant community known for its arts and culture
- + This New York City suburb is known for its award-winning restaurants
- + Located 12 miles west of Manhattan with easy access by car, bus, or train
- + Montclair is known for many of its accomplished and famous residents
- + Will attract 18,000+ patrons

Stephen Colbert, Beth Gottung, First Lady Tammy and Governor Phil Murphy, Evie Colbert, Jon Bon Jovi, and Bob Carrigan at the 2024 Film Festival

Montclair Film's Reach:

During our 2024 fiscal year:

- + We engaged patrons in all 21 New Jersey counties with our film, education, and community programs
- + We continued to seek ways to build our patrons across and beyond the tri-state area. Nearly 6% of our FY24 total audience was from out of state, with the majority coming from New York and California
- + We had International patrons from Japan, Canada, Netherlands, and the United Kingdom

Of the 2024 festival patrons who completed our survey, 28% are non-white, and 94% have a college degree or higher.
